

Transportation Insurance

Covering your trucks while they cover the miles

Logistics companies and their trucks – whether large or small – are the lifeblood of the economy. They carry every imaginable kind of product to practically every corner of the continent. From the high Arctic North to the warm and sunny South, trucks deliver the goods that everyone needs. In fact trucks move 90% of all consumer products and foodstuffs within Canada and almost two thirds, by value, of the country's trade with the United States – which makes the logistics industry worth around $65 billion. Unfortunately, with so many trucks travelling so many miles, it is inevitable that accidents happen. And when they do, the consequences can be dreadful.

A large semi jack-knifing on a major highway in poor weather can not only cause a large collision with damage but injury and sometimes death. That's why it is so important to have the right coverage to ensure your company is protected. The good news is that Axis Insurance Group can create the right policy for your transportation needs – whether you own one truck or hundreds.

Axis Insurance Group has long experience in transportation insurance and works with a wide range of insurers to deliver coverage which perfectly suits your company. Whatever your trucks are carrying and wherever they are going - in Canada or across the border to the US, we have a policy to suit. We can either arrange a standalone policy or combine with related coverage such as commercial general liability or motor truck cargo insurance. Thanks to our excellent relationships with insurers in Canada, the US and Europe we are able to negotiate policy wordings, levels of coverage and deductibles to match your requirements.

Having taken care to recruit and train the right drivers, maintained and serviced your trucks and built a successful business, it pays to protect it with the right kind of insurance coverage. The expert team at Axis Insurance Group will help you find the best policies and get the best value for money.
